

Script: Confluence at Manipal Academy of Higher Education Dubai

Welcome to confluence at mahe Dubai this event serves as a confluence and wonderful event where students from manipal come together to showcase their talents.

This event is happening for two days on the 18-19th of December this year, the event features a variety of programs, including music show art exhibit and dance performance and competitions. These activities are designed to foster a sense of bonds or friendships among students.

Get a chance to listen to guest speakers, including alumni who share their experiences and insights. This is an exceptional chance for you to meet those who have successfully navigated their careers and get inspired by them

As we look forward to the next edition of Confluence at Manipal Academy, I encourage all students to actively participate. attending a art exhibits , or simply enjoying the performances
